Re-structuring of the services

In their intense sessions of work, study, and programming in Rome in March, May, and July this year, the General Council has defined various activities for the coming years. First of all, we present the objectives of pastoral animation which they see as guiding their activities as general government.

Objectives of pastoral animation of the General Council

The Council sees itself as being guided in its pastoral activities in the next few years by the following objectives:

- 1. Encourage the development of the "Marial face" of the Church in order to come closer to young people and the needs of today's world.
- 2. Promote in the Institute a participative style of leadership in such a way that each member is able to exercise the authority that derives from his role in the service of the Institute's mission.
- 3. Accompany the discernment in the administrative units and in the regions with a view to discovering the import of "to go in haste to a new land" in their own context.
- 4. Encourage among the brothers re-discovering and taking delight in their own vocation, to live and witness it in a radical, open and joyful way in the Church and in the world of today.
- 5. Come up with and/or accompany new forms of living the Marist charism among the brothers as well as the laity, and promote the development of the lay Marist vocation, building a new relationship which is mutually enriching and recognizes the continuing fruitfulness of Champagnat's heritage.

6. Continue developing the Marist mission, as part of our identity and fuel for our spirituality, especially in the three aspects emphasized by the General Chapter: a more visible presence among poor children and young people, and their defense of the rights of children and young people.

7. Promote a better understanding and appreciation of internationalism and multiculturalism, living globalisation in an alternative way, and encouraging a greater missionary availability to respond to new needs.

8. And, finally, provide continuity for promoting and applying the "Evangelical use of goods" and the exercise of solidarity at all levels of the Institute.

Councillors connect

The General Council has maintained the criterion, applied by their predecessors, of having each region of the Institute attended to by two councillors, who act as links between the regions and the General Council in matters relating to the General Administration and to provide support for the Provincials through communication and accompaniment. For the Americas, the liaisons are Brothers Eugène Kaban-guka and Josep María Soterias, for Asia and Oceania, Brothers John Klein and Mike de

This work group will have to design a document which reflects the special attention given by the Institute to situations generated by violence towards children and the sexual abuse of minors. The members of this work group are Brothers John Klein (co-ordinator), General Council, Brendan Geary (West Central Europe), Jim Jolley (Melbourne), Gérard Bachand (Canada), Nicolás García Martínez (Compostela). First professions in the novitiate of Morelia and Haiti

Melesio, Felipe, Miguel, Rodrigo and Iván took their first vows last month on 13 June in Morelia, Mexico, while Jonatas and Kinson took theirs on the 19th of the same month in Dame Marie, Haití. All belong to the Province of México Occidental.

During their Novitiate experience they discovered in their lives the great love God has for them and which they have confirmed in their personal stories. They have been sensitive to the appeals of children and youth which they have converted into a vocational call: meetings with them in the missions, in catechetical centres, in the school, in the neighbourhood, in the penitential centres, among children with special needs (handicapped), etc.

After serious discernment, they have decided to commit their lives to God's Project as Little Brothers of Mary. This is the way they have expressed it in the celebrations held in the company of the Brothers of the Mexican Provinces and the Sector of Haití, and of their families and friends.

They enter on this life at a time full of challenges: when young people are longing for witnesses, for brothers who will accompany them in their lives. They make their vows to let the people of Haití know that they can count on them, especially after the tragic events they have lived through.

We wish that in their generous commitment they succeed in becoming true disciples of Champagnat: that they have a deep love for Jesus and Mary, for children and young people, arrive at apostolic zeal, be known for the Marist virtues, especially simplicity... that they be our Brothers and our companions on the journey.

Let us always remember what Jesus says to us: "I have given you an example so that you may copy what I have done to you". Jn 13: 15.

Novitiate of Kumasi

District of West Africa and province of Nigeria

19th June 2010, was a wonderful and a grace-filled day for the Marist world, especially the District of West Africa and province of Nigeria. Eight vibrant, energetic, and spirit-filled young men were admitted into the family of the little Brothers of Mary. We thank God for these precious gifts and we pray for their perseverance.

They are from different African countries; Eric Kramo from Ghana, Yves Eyong Mbiatem, Kfeban Divine Sebeey from Cameroon, and Ocheme Anthony, Nwodo Elias Chukwulob, Abutu Edwin and Michael Okutachi from Nigeria.

The faithful came in their numbers to witness to this great occasion. The Bishop of Obuasi diocese, Ghana, Most Rev. Gabriel Justice Anokye, was the chief celebrant. The faithful, priest, religious and the formatees came in their numbers. Brothers Sylvain Yao, and Christian Mbam and a good number of Marist Brothers from the District of West Africa were in attendant. We thank God for the gift of vocations. We continue to pray for more and for the perseverance of those who have already been called.
