

A Heart That Knew No Bounds: Quotes of Champagnat

“We must have brothers, to teach catechism, to help the missionaries and to conduct schools.”

“I cannot see a child without wanting to let him know how much Jesus Christ has loved him and how much he should, in return, love the divine Savior.”

“We aim at something better: we want to educate them, to instruct them in their duty, to teach them to practice it, to give them a Christian spirit and attitudes and to form them to religious habits and the virtues possessed by a good Christian and a good citizen.”

“To bring up children properly, we must love them, and love them all equally”.

Reflection Question

1. From what you know about Marcellin's early life, what experiences shaped his mission to young people?
